Ambitious Resilience

Jaz Ampaw-Farr, author, resilience ninja, positive disruptor and Co-Founder of Be Human First Ltd

Ready to stop living as if you have spare lives hanging in the wardrobe? This keynote will help you recognise the stepping stones from surviving to thriving to driving real change.

Jaz shares her journey from foster care to becoming Speaker of the Year to help you turn the dial up on your resilience:

- Stop trying to be 'the best' and be 'your best' – Show up as your full fat self in work and life.
- Swap 'work life balance' for 'work-life blend' – Create ownership by focusing on 'with-ness' rather than working 'to' or 'for' others.
- Rebrand Failure – You win or you learn. Stop letting fear drive your bus and celebrate your brilliant Failure CV!

15:15 - 15:30

What next?

Dr Kate Chhatwal OBE - CEO, Challenge Partners

- What are your personal next steps?
- What will you do to further change and resilience in your trust and in the system - tomorrow, next week, next year and beyond?
- What can we do together in Challenge Partners?
